TRIBTERN PRISONERS ESCAPED PROM JAIL .-On Sunday night, thirteen prisoners escaped from jail in Roohester, N. Y. The jailer was told that an attempt was made to escape by the walls of the privy, and with one of the prisoners he retired to examine, when, being overpowered by two prisoners, he was fastened in the privy and the whole thirteen prisoners escaped. Only one at last advices had been

From Charlestown.

Charlestown, November 7.—The excitement in regard to the trial of the Harper's Ferry conspirators still continues, and fair progress is being made by the Court in disposal of the cases.

The case of the free negro, Copeland, was brought to a close on Saturday afterneon, the jury finding a verdict of not guilty of treason as charged in the first count of the indictment, he not being recognized as a citizen, and guilty of conspiracy with the slaves to rebel, and of murder as charged by the second and third

The case was ably argued by Andrew Hun-ter in behalf of the State.

The prisoner was defended by George Se-not, of Boston, who labored with much seal for his elient. A bill of exceptions and a motion for the arrest of judgment was entered by the prisoner's counsel, which will be disposed of o morrow morning. In the case of Captain Cook, the Court assembled at 10 o'clock yesterday and was called to order by Judge Parker. The Grand Jury was sworn and immediately proceeded to their room to consider the case. A number of wit-nesses were summoned and the jury was absent for about two hours.

On the re-assembling of the Court, Mr. Hardon the re-assembling attorney, stated that a number of the witnesses in the case of Cook, who would not be in Stephens's case, were present. He would, if agreeable to the counsel on the other side, move to take up the case of

Mr. Green, one of the counsel for Cook, said that as the counsel had not yet had time to read the indictment, and had not yet decided what plea to enter to the charges, he was unable to proceed in the case, and would prefer that the Commonwealth would proceed with the case of Stephens, which would allow them time to prepare for the case of Cook.

The case of Stephens was called.

Stephens was carried into Court and placed on a mattrass. He is looking pale and haggard, the abstinence from food and the large quantity of medicine taken by him having had a decided effect on him. He bears up under his wounds with much fortitude, and is seldom heard to murmur. His counsel, Mr. Senot, who had endeavored to have his trial removed to an adjoining county, but was re-fused appeared, and the empanelling of a jury was proceeded with. After a considerable number of jurymen had been obtained, Mr. flunter arose and stated that he had just received a telegraph dispatch which would probably interfere with further proceedings in the empanelling of a jury. He then read the following dispatch from Governor Wise:

RICEMOND, November 7.

ANDREW G. HUNTER—Dear Sir.—I think you had better try Cook and hand Stephens over to the Federal authorities. Respectfully, (Signed) HENRY A. WISE.

Mr. Hunter stated that he had been in correspondence for several days with Gov. Wise, and had in his possession a number of facts important to the development of this case, which were unknown to the public and would for the present remain so. He had, since his inst letter to the Governor, come into the pos-session of other facts which pointed to Stephens as the most available party to be handed over to the Federal authorities, as he felt assured that enough would be ascertained to result in bringing before the Federal bar a number of the prominent abolition fanatics of the North.

Mr. Harding objected to the proceeding, and instated that the case should be proceeded He was not in league with Gov. Wise or anybody else. He was not feed by any one, and would only receive as a compensation for his labors in the case the small pittance allowed by the Circuit Court.

Mr. Senot remarked that he had not consuited with his client, and as the jury had partly been chosen he would not consent that the State should hand over to the Government the prisoner, for what purpose was known to Gov. Wise, and had been foreshadowed by the remarks of Mr. Hunter. If time had been allowed, the trouble had in empanelling of the jury would have been dispensed with.

Mr. Hunter remarked that he would then proceed immediately with the case of Stephens and hand over the prisoner Hazlett, who has not been indicted to the Federal Court. It was material whether Stephens would prefer a trial

Mr. Senot then asked a delay of a moment for a consultation with Stephens, after which he announced that the prisoner accepted the offer of the State to hand him over to the Federal authorities, and would therefore prefer to be remanded to jail. Mr. Harding desired the Clerk to enter his carnest protest against the whole proceedings. He considered the whole proceedings wrong and wished it so shown on the docket.

Judge Parker to the Clerk-"Do no such thing. I wish no such protest on the docket of this Court."

The prisoner was then handed over to U.S. Marshal Martin, and lodged in jail, where he will remain until the term of the Federal Court at Staunton, which will not meet for

The jury was accordingly discharged, and a large number of the free holders of the county summoned to appear to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock, when the case of Cook will be taken up. Cook will be defended by J. E. McDon-nid, Attorney General, and Mr. Voorbees, Dis-trict Attorney of Indians, and Mesers. Law-son, Botts and Green, of our own bar.

The prosecution will be conducted by Andrew G. Hunter. The prisoner seems to be in fine spirits, and is not without hope of a verdlet in his favor.

Gav. Willard and Mr. Crowley, his brothers-in-law, will be present during the entire trial.

CHARLESTOWN, November 8.—The trial of Cook commenced this morning, when his concession was read in open Court. A jury was then empanelled and the trial proceeded.

Wassiscron, November 8.—As the chief, if not the only, difficulty in the way of the consummation of the pending treaty between the United States and Mexico is in relation to the proposed transitroutes, influential parties have submitted to both Governments a basic of companying via whichever Governments a basis of compromise, viz: whichever Govern-ment may have forces nearest any scenes of obstruction or disturbance, shall promptly interfere for the purpose of removing it, with the privilege of entering the territory of its neighbor, and both in a case of emergency shall act unitedly.

The assistance recently offered by the Mexican troops at Maiamoras to the people of Brownsville is stated as an example. Such a proposition, however, to be incorporated in the treaty must come from the Liberal Government. This, it is understood, is regarded favorably by our own. There is no doubt that both the governments of Great Britain and the United States are decidedly earnest in the presentation of their respective posiand the United States are decidedly earnest in the presentation of their respective posi-tions or convictions of right in relation to the San Juan question, though not more so than they were in the Oregon controversy; but the latest foreign official advices do not justify any apprehension of serious difficul-ties between the two countries.

Old Brown's Counsel.

Boston, November 8.—Geo. H. Hoyt, who acted as junior counsel for old John Brown, at Charlestown, returns to Virginia to-morrow to assist his client in the disposal of his personal property. He proposed to remain at Charles-town until after Brown's execution.

Mr. Hoyt's first visit was in the capacity of a messenger to obtain the services of Montgomery Blair, to whom he carried letters of recommendation. Mr. Blair was unable to as-sume the duties of counsel for Brown, but was instrumental in securing the services of Mr. Chilton, who subsequently acted in the case.

It was not until after Mr. Hoyt had ascertained that the services of Mr. Blair could not be obtained that he resolved to act as assistant
